

MAKE IT AWKWARD

In a world that values
polish over vulnerability,
we're reclaiming the power of awkwardness!

Why?

Because awkward is authentic and charming. It's a breath of fresh air. Sometimes in our quest to be seen as competent, professional, and sophisticated, we forget the value of being real. Isn't it interesting how we love and appreciate awkwardness in others yet fight it off when we feel it in ourselves? Moms self-report loneliness in staggering statistics, probably because they feel no one truly knows the truest version of themselves. And there's one way to make that happen—by getting awkward.

Once you give yourself permission to be awkward, fear loses its edge. This is when growth happens and relationships deepen. Perhaps, awkwardness isn't a weakness but your greatest asset. What a liberation!

This year is about to get awkward ... in a good way.
